

WHITE WATER BLACK GOLD

A FILM BY DAVID LAVALLEE

WINNER

John Muir Award, Yosemite Film Festival

SHARE THE FILM

White Water Black Gold exposes the huge, but little-known environmental costs of Canada's Tar Sands, the largest foreign source of U.S. oil. Use the film to raise public awareness about the Tar Sands and build greater opposition to the Keystone Pipeline.

INDIVIDUALS

- Organize a house party or community screening. Invite your friends, neighbors, and others. We'll have guides and publicity materials to help you organize and promote your screening.
- Contact local organizations and ask that they organize a screening. Let them know they can earn 10% on any screening purchased and tracked through our event management system.

ORGANIZATIONS

- Encourage your members to host home or community screenings. Your organization can earn 10% for each screening package purchased using a special link or code we'll provide you.
- Sell DVDs directly to your members and supporters or use them as premiums. We offer discounts for quantity purchases and can also create a special branded version with your logo.
